

You are invited to the ACL's
Centenary Dinner

"What is true Anglicanism and can it survive?"
Archbishop Peter Jensen & Dr Ashley Null

All members and friends of the ACL are invited to celebrate 100 years of the Anglican Church League on

Thursday 3rd September 2009
7:00pm for 7:30pm

Moore College Dining Room

1 King Street Newtown
(enter via Carillon Avenue)

Cost:

Financial members (and spouses) $30.00 pp
Friends of the ACL $40.00 pp
Students/Pensioners $20.00 pp

RSVP by Monday 24 August 2009

(Places are strictly limited, so please book early)

Enquiries: acldinner@gmail.com or phone Elisabeth on (02) 9872 5125

The ACL is excited to announce that Archbishop Peter Jensen and the world's foremost authority on Thomas Cranmer, Dr Ashley Null, have agreed to an after-dinner conversation on the nature and future of true Anglicanism.

This promises to be one of the significant events of the year. Archbishop Thomas Cranmer was the first Protestant Archbishop of England and through the Book of Common Prayer, the Articles of Religion and the Homilies, one of the most important figures in the history of Anglicanism. Dr Null, according to one contemporary Cranmer biography, knows more about Cranmer's theology than anyone alive. His conversation with Archbishop Jensen about the heritage we have been entrusted with as Anglicans, the future for confessional Anglicanism and the role the ACL might play in the future is precisely what we need at this critical juncture in the history of the denomination.

Name(s): _____

Contact Number: _____ E-mail: _____

Dietary requirements? _____

Cheque payable to Anglican Church League enclosed for $ _____

Or, please debit my Visa / Mastercard $ _____ Card no. _____ / _____ / _____ / _____

Expiry date ____/____

Signature _____

Mail form & payment to:

ACL Centenary Dinner
PO Box R746
Royal Exchange
NSW 1225